

2013 BARBERA

APPELLATION:

Walla Walla Valley

COMPOSITION:

100% Barbera

VINEYARDS:

Dugger Creek Vineyard

TECHNICAL NOTES:

pH 3.32
TA 0.67g/100mL
Alcohol 14.3% By Volume

FERMENTATION:

Small open top stainless steel fermenters. The cap was punched down three times per day by hand. Free run juice was transferred to French oak barrels to complete fermentation.

AGING:

11 months Neutral French oak barrels

CASES PRODUCED:

343 cases

RELEASE DATE:

October 1, 2014

SENSORY NOTES:

This beautiful Barbera grown at Dugger Creek Vineyard exhibits aromas of red fruits with a hint of spice and earth. Delicious fruit flavors consisting of Rainier cherries, black raspberries, and boysenberries. The texture is seamless and juicy with lively acidity, making this wine as enjoyable with food as without. Pair with roasted chicken, turkey or anything grilled on the BBQ! Enjoy!