SENSORY NOTES:

Only four barrels of this limited production wine were produced. The name alludes to the two synergistic components which were carefully selected and brought together to create a hedonistic wine. Hunt referring to the meaty, earthy, savory and black olive characteristics from our Rocks District Syrah and Gather connoting the Cabernet Sauvignon which provides a flavorful core of blackberry, cassis, cocoa nibs and spice. Barrel aged and then bottled-aged for two years before release, this wine has a supple texture, with polished tannins and a long generous finish.
