SENSORY NOTES:

This Grenache opens with a lifted, aromatic profile that is unmistakably Rocks District, wild strawberry, pomegranate, and dried cherry layered over cracked white pepper, thyme, and cured meat. The whole-cluster fermentation brings beautiful complexity and savoriness to this wine.

On the palate, the wine is silky yet energetic, offering a core of red berry purity wrapped in savory mineral tones. A vibrant, mouthwatering acidity carries the wine into a long, red-fruit and stone driven finish.
